The EXTRAORDINARY LEADER SERIES
Driving for Results

Tuesday—August 7, 2007
8AM to 4:30PM    SCC 316L

Extraordinary leaders have the talent to build trust and engage individuals and teams in delivering excellent performance. In this class, leaders will explore the competencies related to successful achievement of results. We will also explore some of the most effective strategies used by organizations who have earned the Malcolm Baldrige Award. Throughout the class we will draw from the progress of leaders at UWMC who are in the process of completing their UWMC Management Certificate practicum project, and we will hear presentations from those who’ve completed their practicum project.

Target Audience
This class is most appropriate for directors, senior leaders, and those who are working on or have finished their Management Certificate Program Practicum.
